No. G.8892-99.
G.M.42-22-14

Official Memorandum

It has been observed that the proposals for [illegible] of the scales of pay of menial establishments submitted by [illegible] Departments of Government under paragraph 5 of G.O. No.G.[illegible] G.M.42-22-1, dated 11th September 1922, in connection with the reduction of menial establishments result in many cases in an increase of cost instead of a reduction. As this was, in a large measure, due to the lack of a clear understanding of the intention of Government in regard to the reduction of expenditure on menial establishment, Government explained in their order No. G.4520-79/GM 42-22-13 dated 14th March 1923, that the proposals of the Departments should be such that for each hand reduced, an average saving of Rs.132/- per annum is, as far as possible, secured and that the number of posts on different grades of pay is fixed with due regard to the total strength of the menial staff of the office, the largest number being in the lowest grade and a small number in the higher grades.

2. It has, however, been found from a scrutiny of some the orders sanctioning the revision of menial establishments under the Government Order of 11th September 1922, that the principles enunciated in the Government Order of 14th March 1923, have not been kept in view in most cases. Revision proposals which do not follow the directions contained in the order of 14th March 1923 are found to have been sanctioned in the case of some departments even after the issue of this order.

3. Secretaries to Government are therefore requested to have all the revised scales of menial establishment sanctioned or under sanction, re-examined in the light of the directions contained in G.O. No.G.4520-79/GM42-22-13 dated 14th March 1923. It should be seen that for every menial reduced there is as far as possible a saving of Rs. 132/-. The main object to be achieved is a reduction

reduction of expenditure. Fixing the minimum pay of menial servants at a uniform rate in all offices is a subsidiary matter, and if this cannot be secured without giving up which the main object of reduction of expenditure, the grant of higher pay under the orders of 11th September 1922 may be held to be inoperative. Pending the issue of orders on such re-examination, sanctioned scales which are not strictly in accordance with the instructions laid down above, should be declared temporary and open to further revision.

By order,

Chief Secretary to Government.
